I. INTRODUCTION

This case study starts with general information followed by internal and external correspondences which includes more specific information.

All numbers found in this case study are for illustration only and may not be representative of true costs or actual relationships. Any similarities with actual company results are purely coincidental.

II. A TALE OF TWO COMPANIES

Great Expectations Insurance Company

Great Expectations Insurance Company (Great Expectations) is a large insurance company operating exclusively in the United States. The company's corporate vision is to be a leader in the insurance industry, to earn a competitive return for its stockholders, to offer a good value to its policy holders while operating in a financially sustainable way, and to attract and retain valuable employees.

Great Expectations has several divisions including a managed care organization, Barnaby Rudge Inc. (BRI), operating in a single location.

Great Expectations currently offers a full line of products, including but not limited to:

- Indemnity and preferred provider organization (PPO) group medical benefits, including high-deductible health plans (HDHPs)
- Group life,
- Group long-term-disability, and
- Specialty products.

Great Expectations has 5,000 employees supporting four primary business divisions:

- Administrative Services Only (ASO),
- Medical Division (including all Indemnity, PPO, and Managed Care areas),
- Group Life and Disability (GLD), and
- Ancillary Products.

Great Expectations has a strong reputation in the self-insured and fully insured group major medical market. The company has spent considerable resources in developing its own preferred provider networks across the country. As a result, Great Expectations is strongly positioned nationally as a provider of ASO and fully insured group insurance products.

Copperfield Insurance Company

Copperfield Insurance Company (Copperfield) is a large insurance company operating exclusively in Canada. Its corporate vision is the same as Great Expectations: to be a leader in the insurance industry, to earn a competitive return for its stockholders, to offer a good value to its policy holders while operating in a financially sustainable way, and to attract and retain valuable employees.

Copperfield's primary product offerings include:

- Supplemental medical benefits,
- Group life,
- Disability insurance, and
- Ancillary products, including dental and vision.

Copperfield employs 2,000 people throughout Canada.

Copperfield also has a strong reputation in their markets. However, it is interested in growing into other markets and possibly internationally.

III. PROSPECTIVE CLIENT

Dombey and Sons, Inc. (Dombey) is a manufacturing and financial services conglomerate. They currently operate exclusively in the United States but want to expand into Canada. They employ approximately 1,057 union employees and 512 non-union employees. Their consultant has approached Great Expectations about providing a number of employee benefit plans, including medical, group life, and long-term disability.

Subject: Welcome Aboard

Hello. I hope you have enjoyed your initial few days here.

While I know you are busy with your day-to-day work, there are two major initiatives with which I need you to take a lead role.

First, as you know, we currently offer only group insurance. Due to market pressures and the recent political activity, the Board and I are very keen on expanding into all lines of individual insurance. However, we have little experience in the individual market place. We would like you to lead a group of senior executives to explore this expansion. In particular, we'd like your team's review to include (but not be limited to) how our current expertise in group products may overlap with the individual marketplace, potential marketing approaches, and any financial concerns about this initiative.

Second, and possibly more significantly, I have been approached by the CEO of Copperfield Insurance Company, located in Canada, for a possible merger. They are interested in expanding into the U.S. and we could gain from their product expertise.

As you can imagine, this potential merger is highly confidential. You will be joining me as Great Expectations' representatives through the due diligence and, if necessary, negotiations of this possible merger. I have attached Copperfield's financial information for your review.

Again, welcome aboard. This is certainly an exciting time to be at Great Expectations.

Subject: Actuarial Questions

I'm the CFO, Mr. Scrooge. People call me Mr. Scrooge.

I'm concerned about some questions our auditors have been asking about our year-end reserves for Barnaby Rudge, Inc. (BRI). I've attached our former consulting actuary's statement of opinion for your information.

My expectation is that you will review and get back to me – soon!

Barnaby Rudge, Inc.
Actuarial Statement of Opinion

I, Mr. Fagin, FSA, MAAA am associated with Sowerberry's Consulting Firm. I am a member of the American Academy of Actuaries and have been retained by Barnaby Rudge, Inc. (BRI) with regard to their aggregate reserves.

I have examined the actuarial assumptions and actuarial methods used in determining the contract reserves as shown in the annual statement of the company, as prepared for filing with state regulatory officials, as of December 31, 2010.

Aggregate Reserve for Accident and Health Contracts: $151,979,000

In forming my opinion on BRI's reserves, I evaluated that data for reasonableness and consistency. I also reconciled that data to the Company's current annual statement. In other respects, my examination included such review of the actuarial assumptions and actuarial methods used and such tests of the calculations as I considered necessary.

In my opinion the amounts carried in the balance sheet on account of the actuarial items identified above:

- A. Are computed in accordance with commonly accepted actuarial standards consistently applied and are fairly stated in accordance with sound actuarial principles,
- B. Are based on actuarial assumptions which are in accordance with or stronger than those called for in contract provisions,
- C. Meet the requirements of the insurance laws of (state of domicile),
- D. Make a good and sufficient provision for all unmatured obligations of the Company guaranteed under the terms of its contracts,
- E. Are computed on the basis of assumptions consistent with those used in computing the corresponding items in the annual statement of the preceding year end, and
- F. Include provision for all actuarial reserves and related statement items which ought to be established.

Actuarial methods, considerations and analyses used in forming my opinion conform to the appropriate Standards of Practice as promulgated from time to time by the Actuarial Standards Board, which standards form the basis of this statement of opinion."

Subject: Reserving Information

Hello.

I am one of your actuarial students. Per your request to my supervisor, I am providing you some additional information on Barnaby Rudge's (BRI) Incurred but not Paid (IBNP) reserves. As of December 31, 2010, the IBNP was $151,979,000 (previously $192,180,000 as of December 31, 2009). For clarity, these reserves include due and unpaid claims, IBNR, and claims in course of settlement. I calculated these using the combined medical and pharmacy claims data and all product types.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions. Note, though, that I am out Tuesdays and Thursdays studying for exams.

Subject: Medical Management Help

Hello and welcome aboard.

Let me introduce myself. I'm Dr. Alexander Manette, but please call me Alex. I am VP of our Medical Management area.

We currently are split up into two primary areas: disease management and case management. We have begun gathering various metrics that we hope will help us better serve our patients. I have attached some information we have gathered regarding 2010 experience.

I understand you have some experience in this area and I'd like to talk with you further about it. I'll set up some time so we can speak.

Regards - Alex

I don't know if you've had the pleasure to meet our VP of marketing. In any case, please review the following e-mails.

The first is from me to Mr Twist and was based on the projections your predecessor performed. The second is from Oliver asking for some rate concessions.

Once you have had time to read and digest the information give me a call so we can discuss further.

Chuck,

As you know, we've had troubles across the board selling our products. I feel like our actuaries are trying to pick our pockets by keeping the rates so high!!

In talking with our brokers and sales staff, the consensus is that for the upcoming year, we can live with the large group increases but need some serious relief in the small group area. The proposed 15% increase will severely hurt sales prospects, and could put us at risk of losing existing customers. We believe the market is looking for rates that are at most 5% more than where we are today. If we can deliver rates at the market expectation, then we think we can grow our medical enrolment by 15%, offsetting the decreased premium.

Our top producer in Region 1, Arthur Dodger, has been particularly vociferous in his comments. I'd hate to lose Artie as a broker. However, he is concerned about his ability to sell our products. I've been thinking – he and his staff are experts in the individual and retiree health arena. Is it possible to team up with him in developing new products in these areas?

Regarding the premium issue – I think we're really going to need some relief in the coming year – especially with the changes in the market due to healthcare reform.

With all do respect – please, sir, we want some more.

Subject: 2011 Financial Projections

Ollie,

The actuaries have completed the financial projections for 2011. Their suggested rate increases were selected to bring our profitability back in line with the board of director's expectations of 3% of premiums. The following assumptions were used in the 2011 financial projection:

Large group average rate increase 10%
Large group claims trend 11%
Large group commissions 2%
Large group administrative expenses $15 per member per month **

Small group average rate increase 15%
Small group medical claims trend 13%
Small group commissions 5%
Small group administrative expenses $20 per member per month **

 Administrative expenses include claims administration, premium administration, legal, accounting.

Premium Taxes are 2% across all insured lines.
Membership for 2011 is the same as 2010.

Mr. Twist,

Thank you for your recent visit to discuss the possibility of Great Expectations providing some of our employee benefits. As you know our benefit consultant, Mr. Uriah Heep, enthusiastically recommended your company to us. He believes you can provide better service as well as a better price. As you requested, I am enclosing a copy of our current medical plan for your review.

Mr. Heep also suggested that your company may be interested in acquiring a financial services company. It so happens that we are considering divesting ourselves of one of our subsidiaries, Dombey Securities Management Inc (DSM). DSM has some life and annuity business on its books as well as a host of mutual funds. We have decided this company is too far from our core competencies' and have decided to sell the company. I have attached a copy of DSM's income statement from our recent 10K. Please be so kind as to forward to Mr. Dickens or any other member of your management team as appropriate.

Once you have had to time to review the attached documents let me know and we can discuss further.

Best Regards,
Paul Dombey Sr.

III. INITIAL NOTICE OF PRE-EXISTING CONDITION LIMITATION AND SPECIAL ENROLLMENT PERIODS

Employee Eligibility. Employees will be considered eligible for coverage 120 days after becoming a full-time employee (scheduled to work 32 hours per week)

Pre-Existing Condition Defined. A pre-existing condition is any condition, whether physical or mental, regardless of the cause of the condition, for which medical advice, diagnosis, prescription drugs, care or treatment was recommended or received within the 6-month period ending on the employee's "Enrollment Date" in the Plan. (Under HIPAA, the employee's "Enrollment Date" is the earlier of the effective date of coverage or, if there is a waiting period, the first day of any waiting period specified by the Plan.)

For How Long is Coverage for Pre-Existing Condition Excluded? The Plan excludes coverage for the Covered Person's pre-existing conditions for 12 months after the Covered Person's "Enrollment Date".

How Long Before the Covered Person's Coverage Begins? The Covered Person's coverage will become effective on first of the month following his/her "Enrollment Date". While coverage will not begin until that date, satisfaction of any applicable pre-existing condition limitation will begin on the Covered Person's "Enrollment Date".

Prior Periods of Coverage May Shorten or Even Eliminate the Plan's 12-Month Pre-Existing Condition Limitation Period. In general, the Covered Person will be given "credit" for all days on which he/she had qualifying health care coverage prior to joining the Plan. Days of prior coverage are "credited" by reducing, day-for-day, the 12-month pre-existing condition exclusion period the Covered Person would otherwise face under the Plan. More specifically, the Plan's 12-month Pre-Existing Condition Limitation period will be shortened one day for each day the Covered Person had "Creditable Coverage" under another health plan, provided that the Covered Person does not have more than a 63-day lapse in coverage immediately prior to the Covered Person's date of hire. (Some people elect COBRA coverage under their prior plan just to ensure they do not experience a lapse in coverage.) Creditable Coverage includes coverage under a group health plan, individual health insurance coverage, a State health benefit risk pool, Medicare, Medicaid, and certain other coverages. Coverage the Covered Person may have as a dependent -i.e., under the Covered Person's spouse's plan-will count for this purpose.

How to Show That The Covered Person Had Creditable Coverage Before Joining The Plan. In order for the 12-month Pre-Existing Condition Limitation period to be shortened as described above, the Covered Person must show that he/she had prior creditable coverage under another group health plan, a health insurance policy, a State health benefit risk pool, Medicare, Medicaid, etc. To demonstrate to the Plan that the Covered Person had other creditable coverage, the Covered Person should provide the Plan Sponsor with a "certificate of creditable coverage" from their prior health plan. Most group health plans, health insurers and HMOs automatically furnish these certificates to individuals when coverage is lost. In addition, all plans, insurers and HMOs are required to provide these certificates upon request. This certificate will tell the Plan Sponsor how long the Covered Person had coverage under their prior plan and when it ended.

The Covered Person has the right to request a certificate from a prior plan, insurer, HMO or other entity through which he/she had Creditable Coverage. If after making reasonable efforts, the Covered Person has difficulty getting a certificate from his/her prior plan, insurer, HMO or other entity through which he/she had Creditable Coverage, please contact the Plan Sponsor for assistance.

VI. EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS

1. For charges in excess of the Reasonable and Customary charge; or

Hello.

I'm Johannes Gutenberg, but most people simply call me Jo. I am the Senior VP over Securities Investments.

I thought you might find the attached newsletter interesting. Prince Investments is a company we utilize on occasion and we have always found their analysis to be accurate and timely. Also attached is an email a friend of mine, John Yossarian shared with me. John actually works for one of the companies mentioned in the report and he had requested some additional information regarding the analytics used.

I know we are considering several acquisitions or mergers at this time. Perhaps there are some additional opportunities in this group.

Best Regards,
